9th October 2016

This is a busy day for us. In the morning we will be joining with the congregation of Central Methodist Church for their Harvest Festival. This service starts at 10am and young people should arrive in uniform ready to start at 10am. We are asking for donations of dry and tinned food which will be passed on to Breaking Bread FoodBank.

In the afternoon we have our annual Battalion Parade taking place in Tamworth. The Parade Falls In at 1430 in Market Street to parade to St Editha's for the service. Parents are more than welcome to join us in Tamworth to watch the parade and join us for the service.

In order to hopefully make things easier for you we will be inviting members to stay with us between the Harvest Festival and our departure for Tamworth. Please send a packed lunch and we will be playing games and watching films.

We anticipate returning to Wednesbury around 1730, as usual we will text you on departure with hopefully a more accurate time.
